Board Policy Reference: Policy 4111.3 "EMPLOYMENT SECURITY CHECKS"

(adopted August 8, 1995, revised 9/9/97) as follows:

"STATEMENT: It is the intent of the Board of School Trustees of Greater Clark County Schools that all candidates for employment are competent and well-qualified for the position for which they are being considered and there is no reason to believe they would be harmful to children. The following policy is designed to insure that adequate investigation is conducted of a candidate's criminal records to determine if the candidate has a criminal record relating to harm of children. RULES:

- A criminal records check will be conducted following an offer of employment which is contingent upon a criminal records/security clearance.
- Candidates for employment will be informed that "Conviction of a crime is not an automatic bar to employment. The district will consider the nature of the offense, the date of the offense, and the relationship between the offense and the position for which you are applying."

- ▶ Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.
 ▶ Give Form W-4 to your employer.
 ▶ Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1:
Enter
Personal Information

(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
Address		▶ Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
City or town, state, and ZIP code
(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying widow(er) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App, and privacy.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld . . . ▶ ☐

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2022 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3:
Claim Dependents

If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):

Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $

Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 . . . ▶ $

Add the amounts above and enter the total here . . . 3 $

Step 4
(optional):
Other Adjustments

(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income . . . 4(a) $

(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here . . . 4(b) $

(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . . . 4(c) $

Step 5:
Sign
Here

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.

▶ Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.) ▶ Date

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2022 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2021 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2022. You had no federal income tax liability in 2021 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2021 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2022 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2023.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as Additional Medicare Tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2022 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
 - a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a 2a $ _____
 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____
- 3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3 _____
- 4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld) 4 $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2022 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____
- 2 Enter: $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \bullet $25,900 \text{ if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er)} \\ \bullet $19,400 \text{ if you're head of household} \\ \bullet $12,950 \text{ if you're single or married filing separately} \end{array} \right\}$ 2 $ _____
- 3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1 and enter the result here. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-" 3 $ _____
- 4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040)). See Pub. 505 for more information 4 $ _____
- 5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4 5 $ _____

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Instructions for Completing Form WH-4

This form should be completed by all resident and nonresident employees having income subject to Indiana state and/or county income tax.

Print or type your full name, Social Security number or ITIN and home address. Enter your Indiana county of residence and county of principal employment as of January 1 of the current year. If you neither lived nor worked in Indiana on January 1 of the current year, enter 'not applicable' on the line(s). If you move to (or work in) another county after January 1, your county status will not change until the next calendar tax year.

Nonresident alien limitation. A nonresident alien is allowed to claim only one exemption for withholding tax purposes. If you are a nonresident alien, enter "1" on line 1, then skip to line 7. You are considered to be a nonresident alien if you are not a citizen of the United States and do not meet the green card test and the substantial presence test (get Publication 519 from www.irs.gov for information about these tests).

All other employees should complete lines 1 through 7.

Lines 1 & 2 - You are allowed to claim one exemption for yourself and one for your spouse (if he/she does not claim the exemption for him/herself). If a parent or legal guardian claims you on their federal tax return, you may still claim an exemption for yourself for Indiana purposes. You cannot claim more than the correct number of exemptions; however, you are permitted to claim a lesser number of exemptions if you wish additional withholding to be deducted.

Line 3 - Dependent Exemptions: You are allowed one exemption for each of your dependents based on state guidelines. To qualify as your dependent, a person must receive more than one-half of his/her support from you for the tax year and must have less than $4,300 gross income during the tax year (unless the person is your child and is under age 19 or under age 24 and a full-time student at least during 5 months of the tax year at a qualified educational institution).

Line 4 - Additional Exemptions. You are also allowed one exemption each for you and/or your spouse if either is 65 or older and/or blind.

Line 5 - Add the total of exemptions claimed on lines 1, 2, 3, and 4. Enter the total in the box provided.

Line 6 - Additional Dependent Exemptions. An additional exemption is allowed for certain dependent children that are included on line 3. The dependent child must be a son, stepson, daughter, stepdaughter, foster child, and/or child for whom you are a legal guardian.

Lines 7 & 8 - If you would like an additional amount to be withheld from your wages each pay period, enter the amount on the line provided. NOTE: An entry on this line does not obligate your employer to withhold the amount. You are still liable for any additional taxes due at the end of the tax year. If the employer does withhold the additional amount, it should be submitted along with the regular state and county tax withholding.

You may file a new Form WH-4 at any time if the number of exemptions increases. You must file a new Form WH-4 within 10 days if the number of exemptions previously claimed by you decreases for any of the following reasons:

- (a) you divorce (or are legally separated from) your spouse for whom you have been claiming an exemption or your spouse claims him/herself on a separate Form WH-4; or
- (b) someone else takes over the support of a dependent you claim or you no longer provide more than one-half of the person's support for the tax year.

Penalties are imposed for willingly supplying false information or information which would reduce the withholding exemption.

Access Release and Authorization Form

Greater Clark County School Corporation is pleased to offer its employees access to the Internet, an electronic information highway connecting computers and users all over the world. This computer technology is provided for a limited educational purpose, to allow students and employees to conduct research and to facilitate professional communication both within the corporation and between employees and other professionals outside the corporation.

Employees should be aware that some material accessible via the Internet might contain items that are illegal, defamatory, inaccurate or potentially offensive to some people. In addition, it is possible to purchase certain goods and services via the Internet, which could result in unwanted financial obligations for which an employee may be liable.

While Greater Clark County School Corporation’s intent is to make Internet access available in order to further educational goals and objectives, employees and students may find ways to access other materials as well. Even if the Corporation institutes technical methods or systems to regulate students’ Internet access, those methods may not guarantee compliance with the Corporation’s Acceptable Use Policy. Nevertheless, the Corporation believes that the benefits to employees and students of access to the Internet exceed any disadvantages.

Employees should understand that access is a privilege, not a right, and that any user identified as a security risk or having a history of security breaches on this or other computer systems will be denied access to this network. Security software will be installed on all computers that are connected to the network and to areas where student access is possible. Staff members who have been entrusted with the building security password are expected to use the information responsibly and to keep the information confidential at all times. An act of intentionally circumventing the security software may be viewed as grounds for disciplinary action.

I have read and understand the Greater Clark County Schools Telecommunications Services Acceptable Use Policy. I agree to comply with the policy, standards, rules and guidelines contained therein and any other directives or guidelines of school staff. I understand that if I violate the rules, I may face disciplinary action.

I hereby release the district, its personnel, and any institutions with which it is affiliated from any and all claims and damages of any nature arising from my use of, or inability to use, the Greater Clark County Schools Corporation information system, including but not limited to claims that may arise from the unauthorized use of the system to purchase products or services.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES (Employees)

STATEMENT

The Greater Clark County School (GCCS) Corporation believes that information available through the Internet and other telecommunications services will provide valuable resources for our faculty and staff, resources that are simply not available through more traditional means of obtaining information. By offering this service, the goal is to promote learning through curriculum-based projects that take advantage of the unique resources available through Internet and other services.

The unprecedented access to computers and people from around the world provided through the Internet means that total control of student access to resources is not possible. While every effort will be made to restrict student access to inappropriate materials, a user intent on locating such materials may find them. Students will have access to telecommunications services only upon receipt of a Telecommunications Network Use Agreement, signed by the student and parent or guardian. Teachers will instruct their students in acceptable use of telecommunications and the Internet, and in proper network etiquette.

The use of a school-sponsored account to any telecommunications network requires responsible, ethical, and legal use of the network resources. If a user of a school-sponsored account violates any of these guidelines, his or her access to an account will be terminated and future access denied. Additional penalties may be incurred as well, commensurate with the seriousness of the violation. Employees must sign a Telecommunications Network Use Agreement before receiving a user name and password and accessing Internet and email accounts. The signatures on the Telecommunications Network Use Agreement are legally binding and indicate that the signatories have read the terms and conditions carefully and understand their significance.

RULES

INTERNET USE: TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. ACCEPTABLE USE

Internet network resources are provided for a limited educational purpose, which is to allow employees to conduct research and to facilitate intracorporation communication. The use of a GCCS Internet account must be in support of curriculum-related activities and consistent with the educational objectives of Greater Clark County Schools. Transmission of any material in violation of any U.S., state and/or local regulation is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to: copyrighted, threatening, obscene, and/or trade-protected materials.

Teachers and/or support staff using Internet with their students should have a clear lesson plan and list of appropriate sites for students to use to achieve a specific purpose. When specific resources are required or recommended to students, the supervising employees will follow standard professional practice of previewing materials to determine appropriateness. Random surfing by students is not appropriate.

This education account may not be used for commercial activities. Any use for product advertisement or political lobbying is also prohibited. Facebook, My Space, and other social network sites are not appropriate for GCCS internet use.

2. PRIVILEGES

The use of GCCS telecommunications services is a privilege, not a right, and inappropriate use will result in a cancellation of all privileges. Greater Clark administrators and the network administrators will deem what is inappropriate use, and their decision is final.

3. NETWORK RULES

All users of telecommunications on GCCS-sponsored accounts are expected to abide by these rules. These rules include, but are not limited to, the following:

- A. Be polite. Do not be abusive in your messages to others.
- B. Use appropriate language. Do not swear, use vulgarities, or any inappropriate language. Illegal activities are strictly forbidden.
- C. No person using GCCS technology will utilize this equipment to engage in bullying of another. Bullying is defined as follows: overt, repeated acts or gestures, including verbal or written communications transmitted; physical act committed; or any other behaviors committed by a person or group of persons against another person with the intent to harass, ridicule, humiliate, intimidate, or harm the other person.
- D. Do not reveal your personal address or phone number, or those of other students or colleagues.
- E. Do not use the network to solicit face-to-face meetings with other users, and do not respond to such solicitations.
- F. Electronic mail is not guaranteed to be private; in fact, it may be subject to open records requests.
- G. Do not use the network in a way that would disrupt the use of the network by other users. Excessive log-on time and large-scale postings shall be considered as disruptions. The administration of the network reserves the right to determine what constitutes excessive mailings and excessive time on-line.
- H. All communications and information accessible via the network should be assumed to be private property. All copyrights and intellectual property rights should be observed.
- I. Accessing, uploading, downloading, and/or distributing pornographic, obscene, or sexually explicit materials is prohibited.
- J. Schools may be permitted to establish a Web page that presents information about the school and its activities. Students may be permitted to assist in the development of those pages under the direct supervision of a GCCS staff member. Web pages with inappropriate content will be removed from the Web server immediately upon discovery, and those individuals responsible for the placement of the inappropriate content will be subject to disciplinary action. No extracurricular organization may establish a Web page on the GCCS network or with a GCCS account.

- K. Any person using GCCS technology or equipment recognizes that any transaction conducted on or via GCCS hardware/software and/or networks is subject to random monitoring by the GCCS Technology Department.

4. INTERNET SAFETY

- A. General Warning - Individual Responsibility of Parents and Users. All users and their parents/guardians are advised that access to the electronic network may include the potential for access to materials inappropriate for school-aged pupils. Every user must take responsibility for his or her use of the computer network and Internet and stay away from these sites. Parents of minors are the best guides to materials to shun. If a student finds that other users are visiting offensive or harmful sites, he or she should report such use to the teacher or supervisor in charge.
- B. Personal Safety – In using the computer network and Internet, students should not reveal personal information such as home address or telephone number. Students should not use their last name or any other information which might allow a person to locate the student without first obtaining the permission of a supervising teacher. Students should not arrange a face-to-face meeting with someone met on the computer network or Internet without parent’s permission. Regardless of the student’s age, no meetings should be arranged with someone with whom they have only communicated on the Internet.
- C. “Hacking” and Other Illegal Activities – It is a violation of this Policy to use the school’s computer network or the Internet to gain unauthorized access to computers or computer systems, or to attempt to gain such unauthorized access. Any use which violates state or federal law relating to copyright, trade secrets, the distribution of obscene or pornographic materials, or which violates any other applicable law or municipal ordinance, is strictly prohibited.
- D. Confidentiality of Student Information – Personally identifiable information concerning students may not be disclosed or used in any way on the Internet without the permission of a parent or guardian, or if the student is 18 or over, the permission of the student himself/herself. Users should never give out private or confidential information about themselves or others on the Internet, particularly credit card numbers and Social Security numbers. A supervising teacher or administrator may authorize the release of directory information, as defined by Indiana law, for internal administrative purposes or approved educational projects and activities.
- E. Active Restriction Measures – The school corporation will utilize filtering software or other technologies to prevent students from accessing visual depictions that are obscene, child pornography, or harmful to minors. The school corporation will also monitor the online activities of students, through direct observation and/or technological means, to ensure that students are not accessing such depictions or any other material that is inappropriate for minors.

Internet filtering software or other technology-based protection systems may be disabled by a supervising teacher or school administrator, as necessary, for purposes of bona fide research or other educational projects being conducted by students age 17 and older.

The term “harmful to minors” is defined by the Communications Act of 1934 (47 USC Section 254 (h)(7), as meaning any picture, image, graphic image file, or other visual depiction that:

- taken as a whole and with respect to minors, appeals to a prurient interest in nudity, sex, or excretion;
- depicts, describes, or represents, in a patently offensive way with respect to what is suitable for minors, an actual or simulated sexual act or sexual contact, actual or simulated normal or perverted sexual acts, or a lewd exhibition of the genitals;
- taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value as to minors.

5. WARRANTIES

GCCS makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for the service it is providing. GCCS will attempt to provide error-free, dependable access to the computing resources associated with Internet use. However, this school corporation is not responsible for any damages suffered due to loss of data resulting from delays, non-delivery, misdeliveries, or service interruptions. Use of any information obtained via telecommunications is at the user’s own risk. GCCS specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy or quality of information obtained through these or any network services.

GCCS is not responsible for unauthorized financial obligations resulting from use of school corporation resources and accounts to access the Internet or other telecommunications services. GCCS assumes no responsibility for the content of information stored on school corporation diskettes, hard drives, or servers.

Each GCCS building with Internet access will keep on file a copy of the school corporation’s Internet policies and procedures. These will be available for all parents, guardians, staff members, and members of the community to review.

6. SECURITY

Any user identified as a security risk or having a history of security breaches on this system or other computer systems will be denied access to this network. Security software will be installed on all computers that are both connected to the network and installed in areas where student access is possible. Staff members who have been entrusted with the building security password are expected to use the information responsibly and to keep the information confidential at all times. An act of intentionally circumventing the security software may be viewed as grounds for disciplinary action.

Users are expected to make all reasonable efforts to prevent others from using their accounts. Under no condition should a user provide his/her password to another person or allow a person to use their password or account. Attempts to log onto the network as a system administrator will result in cancellation of user privileges and appropriate disciplinary action will be considered. Any user who has located or believes he/she can identify a security problem on the network must notify a teacher or system administrator immediately. Circumventing or attempting to circumvent the security system of the GCCS internet system is prohibited and may result in loss of user privileges and disciplinary action. Violation of any of the above may cause the individual to lose their privileges on the system and may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

7. VANDALISM

Vandalism is defined as any malicious attempt to harm or destroy data of another user or on other networks connected to this network system. This includes, but is not limited to, the uploading, creation or distribution of computer viruses. Using accounts, modifying passwords, or accessing or modifying data belonging to other users without their express written permission will be considered vandalism. "Hacking," or attempting illegally to gain entry into computer systems, within or outside the GCCS network, will be considered vandalism. Vandalism will result in cancellation of privileges.

What you need to know:

- Are you eligible? Benefits are available to employees who are actively at work on the effective date of coverage and working the minimum number of hours per week stated in the contract.
- Your premiums and benefits may vary. Actual premiums and benefit amounts will be calculated by OneAmerica and may change upon reaching certain ages, according to contract terms, and are subject to change. Volumes and benefit amounts shown may be subject to reductions due to age.
- Enroll timely for guaranteed issue coverage. You may be eligible for coverage without having to answer any health questions if you enroll during the initial enrollment period when benefits are first offered by OneAmerica®, or if you enroll as a newly hired employee within 31 days after any applicable waiting period.
- Enrolling later requires approval. If you decline coverage now, you will lose your only chance to apply for group insurance coverage without having to first undergo medical underwriting. If you decide to enroll later, you will need to submit a Statement of Insurability form for review. OneAmerica will then decide to approve or deny your coverage based on your health history. You may not be approved for any type of coverage at a later date if you have any current or future medical conditions.

What you need to do:

- Carefully review the contents of this packet. Enclosed is personal information about the benefits offered to you by OneAmerica on behalf of your employer. This is your opportunity to learn more about group insurance from OneAmerica, but it is not a complete explanation of benefits. For more information, consult the contract about exclusions, limitations, reduction of benefits, and terms under which the contract may be continued in force or discontinued.
- Review the Notices and Limitations. Visit www.employeebenefits.aul.com to find the Notices and Limitations, G-14320 (05 NonPrudent) 12/28/12. Go to Forms, Policy/Employee Admin, and Notices and Limitations.
- Submit your enrollment form. Please return your completed enrollment form to your employer.

Note: Products issued and underwritten by American United Life Insurance Company® (AUL), a OneAmerica company. Not available in all states or may vary by state.

- I hereby apply for the requested group life and/or disability insurance coverage for which I and my dependents, if any, are eligible and available under AUL's policy. I understand receipt of any coverage greater than the guaranteed issue amount or application for coverage after the approved enrollment period first requires medical underwriting and written approval by AUL.
 - I authorize my employer to deduct from my wages the amount of premium required for the amount of coverage approved by AUL, including any premium increases due to age bracket or salary changes when applicable. Premium payments greater than the amount of premium owed will not result in additional coverage under AUL's policy.
 - The undersigned represents any information or documents provided to AUL by the undersigned prior to and after the date of the application for insurance and the facts and other matters contained in the foregoing are true and accurate to the best of the undersigned's knowledge and belief.
- The undersigned understands and agrees 1. any insurance coverage or benefit are contingent upon any statements made to AUL as being complete and correct and 2. benefits under any group life or disability insurance policy will be paid only if AUL or its third party administrator decides in its discretion the applicant is entitled to them. The undersigned have read, understand, and retained the notices, limitations, and exclusions for his/her records.
- Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance may be guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.
