GCCS Staff:

Many of you have filed & completed your tax return, which is always a good time to ensure that your W-4 form is correct. As most of you know, the W-4 form dictates the amount in federal taxes that your employer is withholding every payroll. These funds are transferred to the IRS following every payroll, and are held until you file a return the following year. With this communication, I am hoping to clear up some of the confusion around the newer W-4 form. I know it is a lot of information, but it will be worth the investment of time to ensure your taxes are where you want them to be.

In 2018, significant changes occurred with tax laws and the corresponding W-4 form (updated in 2020). For decades, the "old" W-4 form completed by individual employees centered around the number of allowances claimed, along with filing status, so many people became familiar with phrases such as "single claiming 2", or "married claiming 4", etc. The brand new W-4 form, effective January 2020, does not request the number of allowances from an individual. An important thing to remember is that under the revised tax law, allowances have zero tax value. Instead, the new form provides a few new opportunities to better file their withholding status. These improved opportunities include:

- For individuals to more accurately calculate their withholding, based on their filing status (single, married and a new "head of household" filing status)
- The opportunity to increase one's withholding in "2 earner couples",
- Additional opportunities to reduce an employee's federal tax withholding based on child tax, and dependent tax credits (which again are not the same as allowances on the old form), education tax credits, and deductions in excess of the "standard deduction".

In order to ensure that does not surprise you again, please take a few minutes to ensure that your federal tax withholdings are where you want them to be each year.

Here are some steps that I completed myself to ensure my federal tax withholdings were accurate.

IRS Federal Tax estimator:

1. Log into Skyward and use the drop down arrow on the home page to click on "Employee Access". Then click "Employee Information" and then "W-4 Information" to determine your current withholding status.

2. The IRS provides a tool that calculates how much your federal tax withholding should be, based on a number of questions using this link: <https://apps.irs.gov/app/tax-withholding-estimator>

3. Go back to your Skyward "Employee Information" tab and click "Check History". This will show your latest pay stub, which shows you the gross wages and federal withholdings per pay that the tax estimator requires you to enter. You should also see a button on the "Check History" screen in the far right corner that says, "Show check with YTD Amounts". This will provide the year-to-date amounts that the tax estimator requires you to enter.

4. Once you answer all of the questions in the tax estimator tool, it will provide an estimated tax refund, or tax owed. Use this information to determine how to revise your W-4, if needed.

W-4 Tips:

1. Step 2 is VERY important. If you have multiple jobs, OR if your spouse also works, pay close attention to this section. Most married couples that have either one or both spouses on the new form, likely need to check the box. The most common scenario is for a couple who is married and filing jointly. When the wages are combined on a tax return, it often elevates both sets of earnings to a higher tax bracket. If you are not considering this in your withholdings, then it is likely that you will owe taxes at the end of the year. Therefore, if your spouse works, you may need to check Box 2(c) and have your spouse do the same on their W-4. If you both have similar wages, this should be enough. If one wage is significantly higher, you may also have to request extra withholdings in Step 4(c) on the W-4 form. If your spouse has more than 1 job, Page 3 of the W-4 form has a multiple jobs worksheet that will guide you through that scenario.

2. Step 3 - See instructions at the end of Step 2. For those filing married, you should only complete Steps 3 & 4 on one W-4, which is the higher paying job. If you are married, only claim dependents in Step 3 on either your W-4, OR your spouse's W-4, but not both.

- Enter the number of dependent children who will be less than 17 years of age as of 12/31/2022, and multiply by the child tax credit amount of $2,000 per child. Then, enter the number of "other dependents" who are children 17 or over and others who you claim as dependents (parents, nieces you support, foster children, etc.), and multiply by $500. Please note that both of these are tax credits and not tax allowances. Tax credits reduce your tax liability, dollar-for-dollar.

3. If you prefer to see a refund on your federal taxes, make sure you use the federal tax estimator to determine how much extra withholding you should record on Step 4(c) of the W-4.

If you need to make changes to your W-4, the form is attached. If you have questions, please reach out to Ashley Forsee at ext. 50152, or aforsee@gccschools.com. If you would like to turn in your revised form, please send to Whitney Connell at wconnell@gccschools.com. or send to HR via the pony.

Please note that I am not a tax accountant. We CANNOT advise you on your personal tax situation, but I'm hoping that the tips above will help. If your taxes are more complicated than this, I would recommend that you consult with an accountant who can advise on how to complete your W-4.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.

Give Form W-4 to your employer.

Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)
Caution: To claim certain credits or deductions on your tax return, you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) are required to have a social security number valid for employment. See page 2 for more information.

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if you: are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2-4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3-4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than Step 2(b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, Step 2(b) is more accurate

Complete Steps 3-4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3-4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):
	(a) Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,200	3(a)	$
	(b) Multiply the number of other dependents by $500	3(b)	$
	Add the amounts from Steps 3(a) and 3(b), plus the amount for other credits. Enter the total here	3	$

Step 4: Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. Use the Deductions Worksheet on page 4 to determine the amount of deductions you may claim, which will reduce your withholding. (If you skip this line, your withholding will be based on the standard deduction.) Enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Exempt from withholding	I claim exemption from withholding for 2026, and I certify that I meet both of the conditions for exemption for 2026. See Exemption from withholding on page 2. I understand I will need to submit a new Form W-4 for 2027 <input type="checkbox"/>
-------------------------	---

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.
	Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)		Date

Employers Only	Employer's name and address	First date of employment	Employer identification number (EIN)

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2026 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2025 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2026. You had no federal income tax liability in 2025 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2025 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27a, 28, 29, and 30), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2026 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions by checking the box in the Exempt from withholding section. Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2027.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount of tax withheld will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain credits. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4.

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 15, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2026 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for qualified tips, overtime compensation, and passenger vehicle loan interest; student loan interest; IRAs; and seniors. You (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly) must have the required social security number to claim certain deductions. For additional eligibility requirements, see Pub. 501.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe when you file your tax return.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 5. Greater Clark County Schools
Internet and Network
Employee Acceptable Use Agreement

Access Release and Authorization Form

Greater Clark County School Corporation is pleased to offer its employees access to the Internet, an electronic information highway connecting computers and users all over the world. This computer technology is provided for a limited educational purpose, to allow students and employees to conduct research and to facilitate professional communication both within the corporation and between employees and other professionals outside the corporation.

Employees should be aware that some material accessible via the Internet might contain items that are illegal, defamatory, inaccurate or potentially offensive to some people. In addition, it is possible to purchase certain goods and services via the Internet, which could result in unwanted financial obligations for which an employee may be liable.

While Greater Clark County School Corporation's intent is to make Internet access available in order to further educational goals and objectives, employees and students may find ways to access other materials as well. Even if the Corporation institutes technical methods or systems to regulate students' Internet access, those methods may not guarantee compliance with the Corporation's Acceptable Use Policy. Nevertheless, the Corporation believes that the benefits to employees and students of access to the Internet exceed any disadvantages.

Employees should understand that access is a privilege, not a right, and that any user identified as a security risk or having a history of security breaches on this or other computer systems will be denied access to this network. Security software will be installed on all computers that are connected to the network and to areas where student access is possible. Staff members who have been entrusted with the building security password are expected to use the information responsibly and to keep the information confidential at all times. An act of intentionally circumventing the security software may be viewed as grounds for disciplinary action.

I have read and understand the Greater Clark County Schools Telecommunications Services Acceptable Use Policy. I agree to comply with the policy, standards, rules and guidelines contained therein and any other directives or guidelines of school staff. I understand that if I violate the rules, I may face disciplinary action.

I hereby release the district, its personnel, and any institutions with which it is affiliated from any and all claims and damages of any nature arising from my use of, or inability to use, the Greater Clark County Schools Corporation information system, including but not limited to claims that may arise from the unauthorized use of the system to purchase products or services.

What you need to know:

- Are you eligible? Benefits are available to employees who are actively at work on the effective date of coverage and working the minimum number of hours per week stated in the contract.
- Your premiums and benefits may vary. Actual premiums and benefit amounts will be calculated by OneAmerica and may change upon reaching certain ages, according to contract terms, and are subject to change. Volumes and benefit amounts shown may be subject to reductions due to age.
- Enroll timely for guaranteed issue coverage. You may be eligible for coverage without having to answer any health questions if you enroll during the initial enrollment period when benefits are first offered by OneAmerica®, or if you enroll as a newly hired employee within 31 days after any applicable waiting period.
- Enrolling later requires approval. If you decline coverage now, you will lose your only chance to apply for group insurance coverage without having to first undergo medical underwriting. If you decide to enroll later, you will need to submit a Statement of Insurability form for review. OneAmerica will then decide to approve or deny your coverage based on your health history. You may not be approved for any type of coverage at a later date if you have any current or future medical conditions.

What you need to do:

- Carefully review the contents of this packet. Enclosed is personal information about the benefits offered to you by OneAmerica on behalf of your employer. This is your opportunity to learn more about group insurance from OneAmerica, but it is not a complete explanation of benefits. For more information, consult the contract about exclusions, limitations, reduction of benefits, and terms under which the contract may be continued in force or discontinued.
- Review the Notices and Limitations. Visit www.employeebenefits.aul.com to find the Notices and Limitations, G-14320 (05 NonPrudent) 12/28/12. Go to Forms, Policy/Employee Admin, and Notices and Limitations.
- Submit your enrollment form. Please return your completed enrollment form to your employer.

Note: Products issued and underwritten by American United Life Insurance Company® (AUL), a OneAmerica company. Not available in all states or may vary by state.
