

GCCS MCKINNEY-VENTO

FIRST SEMESTER 26-27 newsletter

First Semester Newsletter

In this issue:

- Local resources for housing, clothing, and food assistance.
- A quick reminder of McKinney-Vento school supports available as the new school year begins.
- A new Resource Spotlight featuring a Southern Indiana organization that assists people experiencing homelessness.

Back-to-School Reminder

Students who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence may qualify for McKinney-Vento support. Eligible students can receive help removing barriers to enrollment, attendance, school stability, and transportation when applicable.

Resource Spotlight

Catalyst Rescue Mission
Jeffersonville, Indiana

Catalyst Rescue Mission works to help end homelessness in Southern Indiana through emergency shelter, case management, life-skills support, social services, and connections to permanent housing.

Families and individuals working through housing instability can receive support identifying barriers, connecting with community partners, and taking steps toward long-term housing stability.

Shelter: 1727 DL Motley Way, Jeffersonville
Phone: 812-285-1197
Intakes: Daily, 8:00 a.m.-7:00 p.m.

School Supports

Each GCCS school has student-support staff available. Families experiencing housing instability are encouraged to contact their student's school or the GCCS McKinney-Vento Liaison for assistance with school stability, enrollment barriers, transportation questions, and connections to community resources.

Resource availability, eligibility, and hours may change. Families should contact the organization directly for current information.
